In the Matter of

Robert J. Lunn

Respondent

RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE ANSWER INSTANTER

NOW COMES Respondent Robert J. Lunn, by his attorney John M. Beal, and moves that he be given leave to file instanter his Answer to the Order Instituting Public Administrative Proceedings, and in support thereof states as follows:

1. Respondent's Answer was due to be filed on April 22, 2015.
2. The preparation of the Answer was delayed due to the meeting between respondent and his counsel on the Answer being postponed because of medical treatment that have been received by the respondent at the University of Chicago Hospitals.
3. The Answer has been completed and is being submitted by fax on April 23, 2015, with paper copies being sent by overnight mail.
4. There would be no prejudice to the Commission from the delay in the filing of the Answer.
5. Enclosed with this motion is the executed Answer and three copies.

WHEREFORE Respondent Robert J. Lunn moves for leave to file instanter his Answer and that the enclosed Answer and three copies be accepted as that filing.

Respectfully submitted,

John M. Beal
Attorney for Respondent
